October 29

My Dad was born October 29, 1927. This time of year brings back a lot of memories about him especially from the later years when my parents were living in South Carolina. I would try to get down and see Dad for his birthday. I like to think I was being a good son, but our primary activity when we got together was to play golf, his favorite activity. I got something out of it too. Sadly, this is also the time of year that he died. So October has a lot of emotions roiling around in it. October is the most beautiful month too. I love fall but it is a bit melancholy for me.

Dad died in November but he went into the hospital in October. My Dad was wonderfully active and so it was a surprise when the doctor put him in the hospital. He had been undergoing chemo treatment for Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma. At the end of his chemo treatments he was pronounced cancer free...I still remember the phone call. With that he went out and celebrated. Friday was dinner with a friend, Saturday was the Clemson football game, and Sunday was dance club. On Monday he was not feeling well and on Tuesday he was put in the hospital with pneumonia. Dad had never spent a lot of time in the hospital. He assumed and I assumed that he would be out soon and the doctor told him so. However, he never got better. His immune system was so compromised from the chemo that he had nothing to fight the pneumonia. Antibiotics did not help a bit. He couldn't breathe and would go into coughing fits when he could not catch his breath. One night a few days later they induced a coma so his body could start to mend. It never did. He was that way for three weeks. With no improvement.

Then came the question, the most excruciating question. How long do we wait? How long until there is no hope? The doctor kept promising that he would get better. He had every reason to believe that he would heal and be weaned off the ventilator and resume his life. We believed it too until the doctor described what resuming his life meant to the doctor. His idea was that he could go home but would need full time nursing care. He might recover enough to be able to make it out to the mail box and back. My sister laughed. That was not Dad. He skied thirty days a year out west. He played golf and tennis. He was an alive and independent spirit. He had said to me many times that he never wanted to end up like Mom living in a home unable to take care of herself. The answer became more and more obvious and heartbreaking. My sister and I could not bring ourselves to face it until the doctor told us what kind of life my Dad would lead if he did survive. That wasn't Dad...he was already gone and so we made the arrangements to stop the ventilator. What a terrible choice to have to make.

On the day of Dad's death, full of doubt and remorse, I went out for a run early in the morning. It was a beautiful morning on the lake where he lived. The pink sunlight was just dawning and there were steam clouds emanating up from the lake. It looked like heaven. I was overcome with emotion and then a deep sense of peace. It gave me confidence that God would take care of him. He died that day just after noon a few minutes after the ventilator was turned off.

To this day I don't know if it was the right thing to do. On beautiful fall days when a memory of my visits or one of his corny jokes occurs to me I pause and wonder. I will never know. Sometimes all you can do is go on faith, and I am so grateful that God gave me that vision of heaven.

Blessings, Tim

From the Mailbox

I thought you might appreciate this, and even laugh, knowing me.

"Sunday's gospel reading talked about the narrow door. And I just had to think of a recent incident where my (large) bag/purse got caught on a door. For certain, my purse will never fit through the narrow door. And then the mind ran - my house won't fit, that's for certain. My car, neither. None of my "stuff" will at all. An outsized ego never fits either. Worries don't fit through. What does fit? Faith, Hope, and Love, I suppose.

Love, Carla

OCTOBER ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

Our programs are ongoing and all are welcome to join in at any time! Any questions contact Amy Kitahata-Sporn at: amyks@optonline.net.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS: Tom Davis will present an introduction to the Dead Sea Scrolls. They have been called the greatest discovery for Biblical study in the 20th century. This presentation will cover what they are, how they fit into the context of their times, and why they are important. Join us on Sunday, December 5th (rescheduled date) at noon in the Carriage House conference room.

BIBLE 102: THE HISTORY OF THE GOSPELS: Foundations of Faith. The Gospels are the source of almost everything we know about Jesus and his earthly ministry yet the Gospels were written thirty to seventy years after Jesus died. What does that fact mean for the validity, veracity and authority of the Gospels? What reasons did the evangelists have for writing the Gospels so many years after Jesus dies? There are many questions to be answered about the occasion and the content of the Gospels. Some we will never know but what we do know does not down grade the importance of the Gospels but rather refocuses them as what they were always meant to be: Foundations of Faith. We will explore the history of these most engaging books in this study. We meet once a month on Sunday mornings in the Carriage House conference room at 9:15 a.m. Our next meeting is on Oct. 17th. We will continue on: Nov. 14th, Jan. 9th, Feb. 13th, March 13th.

MONTHLY LECTURE SERIES: LOVE YOUR ENEMIES. Rev. Ives will be exploring the history of an incredibly provocative idea proclaimed by Jesus and shared by early Christians. It has been a part of the Christian witness to the world since the beginning. It has been changed and transformed many times through many events in history. We will look at what the idea meant to the first Christians; Augustine and the just war theory; the Crusaders as they conquered, maintained and eventually lost the Holy Land; the Christians of Spain in people in a time of high culture far preceding the Renaissance; and what it means to Christians today in terms of how we conduct our lives and live in a country and a world that seems ever more polarized each day. We will gather Friday nights at 7 p.m. for Tim's lecture, discussion and refreshments on: Oct. 29th, Nov. 19th, Jan. 29th, Feb. 25th, and April 1st in the Carriage House conference room. Please contact Tim with any questions.

INTRODUCTION TO PRESBYTERIANISM:

Rev. Ives will offer an introduction to what it means to be a Presbyterian by looking at the preliminary principals of our church as presented in the Book of Order. This is meant to outline what it means to be a Presbyterian and is meant for those who might like to join our church, who have recently joined or long time members who are interested. We will meet after the Sunday service at noon on: Oct. 24th.

UNDERSTANDING THE BIBLE WITH TIM:

continues every week on Wednesdays from 2 – 3:30 p.m. This is an opportunity to explore The Bible in a small group setting with Tim. Come with your questions and reflections. No reading preparation is required. Tim chooses passages from the Sunday Lectionary readings to read and discuss on the spot. We meet in the Carriage House conference room and all are welcome to join us at any time.

HEALING MOVEMENT & MEDITATION:

Amy Kitahata-Sporn will continue to offer classes on Thursdays starting October 7th from 4:30 – 6 p.m. in the Chapel. The course includes working with the principles of The Alexander Technique, gentle stretches and guided meditations to maintain our well being and support the healing process. If interested in participating, please contact Amy: amyks@optonline.net or by calling 944-0471.

THE SPC LENDING LIBRARY: is open and located between the Sanctuary and Chapel in The Pastor's Study. Please feel free to sign out and in any books or CDs on the shelves stamped "Scarborough Presbyterian Church." We welcome book recommendations.

LA BASTILLE SCHOOL SEPTEMBER 2010

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Classes are set to begin at La Bastille School in Haiti. There are now four grades and almost 100 students in the school. Despite damage to the building from January's earthquake, the school routine continues uninterrupted.

WHAT IS WISHED FOR

The greatest wish is for the school to grow to its full complement of five grades. Of course, school supplies and books are always needed, but right now the school and its friends are looking for ways to supply clean water to the school and school community. Currently, the water source is a stream which is a twenty minute walk from the school. The walk is difficult, but not unusual by Haitian standards. The biggest problem is that the water is not always clean. Various solutions are being considered. They all cost money.

HOW CAN WE HELP?

Scarborough Church, (through the Mission Committee) continues to provide financial support to La Bastille School. Individuals may also make donations. Fifty dollars a year covers the cost of one student's education. Donations are also being accepted for the clean water project. Every fall there is a collection of packages of vegetable seeds that are sent to the school so that they can grow some of their food. If you would like to make a financial donation, please make your check payable to Caldwell Presbyterian Church. The memo line should read La Bastille School or Clean Water Fund. Checks and seed packages can be left at the SPC office. Barbara Devir, CLP

OCTOBER 17TH CROPWALK

CROP Walk is October 17, 3 PM starting time at the community center in Ossining.

In these difficult times, it's more important than ever to raise money for our local Food Banks, as well as such hard hit areas as Haiti, Pakistan, and Darfur. Last year, the Crop Walk in Ossining raised over $2,000. This year, the need is just as great. Please help.

This year Ossining and some 2,000 cities and towns nationwide are joining together in interfaith community CROP Hunger Walks around the theme "Ending hunger one step at a time." Many of the CROP Walkers will be wearing T-shirts, proclaiming their solidarity with the millions of neighbors around the world who have to walk to live -- as well as with the millions served by local food pantries, food banks, and meal sites here in the U.S. These local ministries share in the funds raised by CROP Hunger Walks.

Haiti is one part of the world where CROP Hunger Walks are making a big difference. In the aftermath of the killer earthquake, Church World Service was there with much-needed emergency assistance. With the recovery effort in full swing, CWS is helping families and communities to rebuild homes, food supplies and livelihoods.

CROP Hunger Walks also play a role in the U.S., helping communities ravaged by floods and tornadoes to recover. To find out more, donate, join the walk or start a team go to <http://www.ossiningcropwalk.org/> or www.aboutspc.org
